Jennifer:

We do not object to extending deadlines other than amendment of pleadings, which passed nine months ago. We continue to believe that Marriott's proposed deadlines better track what we understand to be the Court's preference for setting the deadline to file dispositive motions, and then working backwards from there. You may note the discrepancies in Ramsey's motion, or we can do so in Marriott's response. Thank you.

Our position is that you have agreed to all other deadlines other than amendment of pleadings, which we believe is in bad faith so we are filing a motion to modify the scheduling order including to add amendment of pleadings:

These are the proposed dates:

Motions to Amend Pleadings.	November 12, 2021
Fact and Expert Discovery Cut-off	March 11, 2022
Daubert Motions	April 15, 2022
Mediation deadline	April 22, 2022
Dispositive Motions	March 18, 2022
Jury Instructions	July 9, 2022

Jennifer- i just returned from a hearing in Tucson and I had to attend to an unexpected personal matter yesterday. I told you I would get back to you no later than today. Can you please send us your motion so we can let you know our position?

Thank you.

Jennifer:

Let's put this off until the beginning of the week when I return. I'm not sure how we present this as a joint motion. We have a significant disagreement about an issue that has not even been fully briefed. I will touch base on Monday, Tuesday at the latest. I am just not in a position to give you an answer this afternoon or tomorrow.

Thank you.

Confirming with my client. Do you want to prepare a proposed joint motion or do you want me to?

Can you just send me back each of your proposed deadlines in the format I sent you so that I can see where the changes are. Thanks.

We obviously disagree about the amendment issue, but we can clearly send a joint proposed reflecting the disagreement on the one point.

Jennifer:

Thank you for your email.

Marriott will not agree to resurrect the motion to amend deadline, which passed last December. If a party believes it has sufficient grounds to amend the pleadings, that party should file an appropriate motion.

Regarding the other deadlines, the reason the parties needed additional time was to schedule and take depositions. You indicated in a previous email that November and December would be difficult for deposition scheduling. While important holidays fall over these months, we still anticipate being able to schedule and take depositions in November and December. Our proposed deadlines extend fact discovery to the end of February, so completing the depositions should not be a problem.

We understand from our local counsel that Judge Trauger requires the trial date to be at least 90 days after dispositive motions have been fully briefed. Per the local rules, the response is due 21 days after the MSJ has been filed, and the reply is due seven days later. Motions for summary judgment will then be required to be fully briefed by the end of April. This means we should be aiming for a dispositive motions deadline of April 1, 2022. Working backwards, we believe the parties should allow at least 30 days between fact and expert discovery cutoff and the dispositive motions deadline. We propose March 1, 2022 as the fact and expert discovery cutoff.

We are fine with the remaining deadlines.
